About Gorham Sterling ... and YOU!

When you select Gorham, you are buying sterling by America's Leading Silversmith since 1831. The very name Gorham is synonymous with sterling throughout the world. There is, in fact, more Gorham sterling gracing American tables than any other brand.

Many of the Gorham patterns have matching sterling holloware . . . identical in design and beauty to your sterling flatware.

Practical,
too . . .

Gorham sterling knife handles are made in one piece from a seamless silver tube. This exclusive method insures that your Gorham knives will not rattle, will resist denting if you accidentally drop them, and will never discolor at the seams — simply because there are no seams. The blades will never loosen, even when washed in an automatic dishwasher.

All patterns shown in this folder are in open stock so it's easy to fill in and add to your service. Gorham patterns are always available, except, of course, during national emergencies. Gorham sterling is sold at better stores throughout the country.

COLD MEAT OR BUFFET FORK — serves sliced meats, chops, cutlets — with tablespoon makes an all-purpose serving set.

PASTRY SERVER — for individual pastries and for serving ice cream slices.

CHANTILLY

One of America's most popular designs (named for a famous French chateau) and a superb adaptation of Louis XV style, Chantilly is a cultured pattern designed entirely of suave, graceful curves.

STRASBOURG

One of America's loveliest designs, Strasbourg finds its inspiration in a lush, luxurious period of decorative art, the French Rococo period.

RONDO

A rhythmic design of moving lights in three repeating themes (like the musical form of the Rondo) which rise to a crescendo ending in a graceful French scroll.

ENGLISH GADROON

Outlined with a rich gadroon edge, familiar as a Georgian decorative motif, English Gadroon is formal, aristocratic—an authentic 18th Century design.

BUTTERCUP

A design with a profusion of delicately-wrought, naturalistic meadow flowers. Truly Victorian, with all the sentimentality and minute detail which characterize that period.

MELROSE

Masterfully carved with sturdy American lines. Melrose recaptures the beauty of old rosewood carvings from the Melrose mansion in Natchez, Mississippi.

SEA ROSE

A design that reflects the enchantment of the rolling sea and the fresh, wild beauty of a rose in bloom ... the new American look in sterling.

STARDUST

A quietly sophisticated design with incised decoration inspired by nature. In this exquisite sterling, you can see what you wish ... the delicacy of a snowflake, the sparkle of stars and diamonds.

CELESTE

A blend of incised design in typical American tradition ... with contemporary shape and balance in heavyweight sterling.

WILLOW

A design that borrows fluid grace and sophisticated use of a simple nature form from the Far East ... slender, delicate, with brilliant finish.

CAMELLIA

With its ornamentation derived from the delicate lace pattern of a Spanish shawl, Camellia's softly gleaming center panel provides balance for the sparkling lights of the lacy edge.

GREENBRIER

This design expresses the hope and strength of youth in the growth of a flower from bud to full bloom through graceful, rhythmic lines interspersed with delicate flowers.

LYRIC

This design was inspired by the play of soft light on a woman's coronet braid; Lyric satisfies the modern demand for clarity of line and form in sterling flatware.

MELROSE

Masterfully carved with sturdy American lines. Melrose recaptures the beauty of old rosewood carvings from the Melrose mansion in Natchez, Mississippi.

KING EDWARD

Skillfully decorated in Thomas Chippendale's highly detailed French manner, King Edward's air of richness makes it appropriate with other traditional or period appointments.

DECOR

A pierced design of flow and action with jewel-cut ornament, Decor combines texture and gleam in an exotic motif of contrasting light and accent.

ETRUSCAN

A pattern that uses the familiar "Greek Key" architectural motif translating classic formality into a well-proportioned design for the modern home.
